WE NOMINATE

Franklin C. (Cappy) Cappon, a Princeton tradition for the past two decades and one of the country's best-known basketball coaches, who this Friday evening (April 17th)—his own protests notwithstanding—will be the guest of honor at a New York gathering of the "Clan of Cappon." Under the energetic leadership of a committee of erstwhile basketball stars, athletes and non-athletes of assorted ages, shapes and sizes will assemble for what has been conceived as a "21st birthday party" for the 58-year old Cappon who joined Princeton University's athletic staff in the fall of 1938.

Described by a Princeton Dean "as one of our great teachers with a remarkable understanding of whatever it is that makes undergraduates tick," Cappon is an unusual figure in a demanding profession. He of course plays to win, he specializes in upsetting favored opponents but never does he create the impression that his teams "must win or else." The letter announcing the upcoming "Cappy Birthday Party" pinpointed this phenomenon in these words: "Strangely enough, we have never taken special notice of the fact that Princeton has played fine basketball over the years and that Cap has compiled one of the country's outstanding records."

A newspaperman, with an aversion for basketball and a profound admiration for Cappon, whose teams have been dominant forces in the Ivy League for the past 13 years, conducted an informal survey among a number of Cappon's former pupils. To a man they described their foghorn-voiced coach as "a major influence, as a person and as a teacher, in their growing up." For example, Bud Palmer '44, now a top-flight television announcer and under Cappon one of the first collegians to perfect the deadly jump-shot, recalled Cappon as "a great winner and even greater loser."

The bald-pated Cappon, a past president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches and probably the best-read member of an erudite university coaching staff, launched his career even before he completed his studies with the Class of 1924 at the University of Michigan. Winner of the Western Conference Medal, annually conferred upon the "Big Ten" senior best combining proficiency in scholarship and athletics, he started out at Luther College, Iowa, as head coach of football, basketball and track. He subsequently served a brief apprenticeship at Michigan and in 1926-27 was head coach of football at the University of Kansas.

Prior to migrating eastward as part of the personnel upheaval that catapulted Fritz Crisler from Nassau Street to the Michigan campus, Cappon had completed a decade at Michigan as assistant director of athletics, head coach of basketball and assistant coach of football. Here, with time-out for four World War II years with the Navy, he has contributed almost as much to the Tigers' football successes as he has to basketball. And, on the so-called "town side" of the Borough's business section, he has risen to the vice-presidency of the real estate and insurance firm of G. R. Murray, Inc.

For his outstanding contributions in the field of higher education: for endowing his teams with a personality which is distinctively Princeton's—and Cappon's; for making a habit "of doing better" than his fellow coaches deem at all logical in their pre-season evaluations; he is Town Topics' nominee for

PASTORS SAY 'NO'

Dishonest Fund Raffles. Notified by letter of the proposal of the United Fund to raffle off the gifts donated by the Princeton University Store, Princeton's pastors have issued a statement expressing their opposition to this, "saying they hope you will be dropped."

In the statement drafted Tuesday at its April meeting, the Princeton Pastors' Association recognizes that United Fund directors rule out raffles for the future and expect to hold "just trials." But the Pastors' Association reaffirms their opposition to clarify raffles even once."

In reply, Roger S. Marion, Fund director, released the fund plan to proceed with the raffle, which will be held May 23. Members of the special committee studying the proposed point out that several charitable raffles have been conducted in Princeton in the past with no objection.

ROUNDUP

GIVE: The Rev. David H. McAlpin of the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church has been named head of the United Negro College Fund appeal in Princeton. The Friendly Food Mart on Witherspoon Street will give 2 percent of its gross sales Friday and Saturday to the Fund.

Chester Geddes, an employee of Sun Ray Drug, was a 17-inch TV set in the recent Hadasian raffle. The Rev. Alvin L. Johnson, Richard L. Chappell, class of '62, will autograph copies of his book on the Antarctic this Saturday from 11:30 to 1 at the University Seminar Room.

White daffodils . . . Sunday's snow was the first to fall in April since 1957 . . . and the first since 1954 that has whitened the countryside as late as the 12th of the month.

Rained out on Friday, the Borrough school children inspection was rescheduled on Monday. 189 cyclists appeared and almost all bikes passed . . . the school plans a series of follow-up safety clinics.

Look to the Township? These roads will get a resurfacing job this year . . . Elm, Princeton Pike, Birch, John, Race, Doran, Main, Franklin, Hill, Elm, Franklin, Moore, Mt. May 6 Master Plan hearing in the Township? It depends on whether the residents come in from Canada. Associate Princeton, Trenton, Middlesex and Monmouth Chapters of the American Guild of Organists will present a concert of organ music next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Princeton College of Music.

TAKE: The Listening Post has been forced to close through the collector clamped in on the door April 7 because the collector, Daniel Pein, owned personal property taxes on his inventory for 1957 . . . the levy, (some $200) was paid next day . . . possibly the first action of his kind for non-payment of taxes. Borough officials say . . .

Interestated consumers may attend a PUG hearing this Thursday in Newark to find out what curtailments of service the Pennsylvania railroad has in mind . . . new timetables, cutbacks, etc. are said to cut some Junction stops.

New Township schools are one month behind schedule because of delayed start.

Friendship Club's William Warfield concert, plagued by the singer's illness and a postponed date, went into the hole by $300. Those campers who had planned to go for vacation in a horse-drawn buggy, ended up with a traffic ticket . . . they were clocked in less than an hour on the Tappan Zee bridge instead of 40 m.p.h., vehicles are supposed to maintain.

NAMES MAKE NEWS

Seventeen appointments, while the continuing vacuum created by the resignation of Maurice A. Mather remains unfilled for the second successive month, Mayor and Council at their stated April meeting approved the appointment of Borough and Township residents to a half-dozen different agencies that are concerned with the well-being of the Princeton community.

The newly created Fire Prevention Bureau was raised to full strength with the appointment of John P. Servis, 30 Harrison Street, and Dr. Stephen Kamm, Chestnut Street, a member of the University's Department of Chemistry, while retired publisher James S. Thompson, 45 Parkside Drive, was named "Township Member" of the Public Library Board.

"The Home Front," The recently constituted Township-Borough Disaster Control Council, was presented with the resignations of the following: Police Chief Raymond Mondone, Fire Chief Walter Coan, Borough Engineer Arthur J. Brown (reporting for duty this week), Borough Clerk

Dr. J. Leonard Moore, 59 Westcott Road, and Richard L. Stedden, 30 Nassau Street, were confirmed for three-year terms with the Board of Health. Bryan V. Moore, 30 Quarry Street, and Edward G. Hofgesang, 35 Erdmann Avenue, were appointed to the Borough Planning Board, and John J. Collins, 85 Jefferson Road, was named a member of the "Local Assistance Board."

Other Borough News: Among the other developments at Tuesday's meeting was the acceptance that the recently-acquired piece of Borough fire-fighting apparatus will be dedicated Saturday afternoon to the late Henry Keeney, for many years fireman, foreman and captain of Mercer Engine Company No. 3 and as fire chief one of the first advocates of the new high-pressure fog equipment.

In Between's No Good

Can't wait for summer,
Love winter, too!

But I'll be glad

When spring is through!

—I. M. FENDUP

Good reason to feel that way, too, after the shenanigans perpetrated last week. For example, the children were swimming in Steeby Brook and the thermometer hit 84—an all-time high for April 8. Four days later, children were throwing dippings at the thermometer dippled to 34.

To add to the confusion, the low temperature of 34 degrees (35°) was higher than the first showing on Sunday, a chill 45. Things will be better, the Mao promises, although only the coming temperatures are from Sunday with averages three degrees below normal, now 48 for this area. Little or no precipitation in sight.

log efforts in behalf of safe driving. Mayor and Council enthusiastically proclaimed the period April 17-23 as "Safe Driving Week," one of the most ambitious civic projects ever undertaken by Princeton teen-agers.

The United Community Fund, beneficiary of last September's star-crossed opening of the Princeton University Store, has been authorized to "raffle off" the 149 prizes donated to the store by the U.S.A.F. The drawings begin in accordance with the laws of New Jersey—scheduled for Saturday, May 23.

Tuesday, May 12, will be a "red-letter" day for residents of picturesque Morven Place, the one-block outcry linking Boulton Street and Hodder Road. Unless there are any objections, the tree-lined street (referred to by several early Princeton historians as "Morven Street") will officially—and once and for all—become Morven Place.

IMPROVEMENTS VOTED

For Riverside Area. Four ordinances to provide streets and sanitary facilities in and near the proposed Riverside School were approved on first reading this week by the Township Committee. Public hearing on the ordinances, which call for expenditures of more than $7,000, will be held at the regular May meeting of the committee.

Proposed for construction under the ordinances are Prospect Avenue from Riverside Drive East to Riverside Drive West, and Riverside Drive with width of Kingwood Street. Sidewalks and walkways for the new portion of Prospect Avenue are also provided for. The Riverside School will be built at the corner of Riverside Drive and Prospect Avenue.

In other committee business, the controversial ordinance which brings the state's liquor law into conformity with it was passed by the committee without a vote. The new law, in response to a directive from the state Alcoholic Beverage Commission, omits any mention of how long after closing hours sales may be conducted in a tavern.

The committee accepted with thanks for valuable service the resignation of John J. Nihi as clerk of the Township Committee effective May 1. The unexpired portion of Mr. Nihi's term, from May 1 to December 31, will be filled by Mrs. Gladys C. Hahn. Mr. Nihi will continue to serve as clerk of the Township Committee.

Committeeman W.H.L. W. Marvel announced that residents of the Herontown Circle area are invited to discuss their sewage and water supply problems with him at his office at 12 Chambers Street at an informal meeting at Township Hall on Tuesday, April 23, at 8:30.

Norman W. Mather, owner of property on Prospect Avenue between Woods Avenue and Riverside Drive East, told the committee he had been unable to persuade residents of the area to join him in a petition requesting a sewer line for the street. Mayor

R. Kenneth Fairman assured Mr. Mather that the committee would do whatever it could to convince the neighbors of the desirability of the sewer line.

Mayor Fairman announced the appointment of Ralph J. Belford, James G. Campbell Jr., Thomas P. Doherty, Joseph Marvel and H. C. Sturhahn to represent the Township on the joint Borough-Township Disaster Control Defense Committee.

A petition was received from 26 residents of Overbrook Road, protesting the proposed change of the name of their street to Shady Brook Lane. The change was recommended by the Planning Board to take effect after the bridge connecting Overbrook Road and Shady Brook Lane is completed. The petition was tabled.

To add to the confusion, the low temperature of 34 degrees (35°) was higher than the first showing on Sunday, a chill 45. Things will be better, the Mao promises, although only the coming temperatures are from Sunday with averages three degrees below normal, now 48 for this area. Little or no precipitation in sight.

approved, and two bids for the community's new fire-rescueing program were opened. Lowest bid, at $16,895.57, was the Kingston Bituminous Products Co.

In response to two letters decrying the "excessive freedom given to dogs" in the Township, Committee-man Marvel read the relevant ordinance and pointed out that it makes provision for the shooting of any of many or dangerous dogs. It is possible ordinance requiring compulsory rabies shots for all dogs will be discussed at the April 26 meeting of the Health Board, Mr. Marvel said.

PRIMARIES ON TUESDAY

Extreme Light Vote Set. With Tuesday's primary election failing to include a contest in either Princeton Borough or Township, voter interest is expected to be unusually light. The polling place is the church on Main Street; the new election district headquarters are those now established for the Borough's fifth, where voters will go to the new addition at the Methodist Church on Vandenberg Avenue.

News Of The THEATRES

'THREE FOR ONE'

Players in Action. The Princeton Community Players will present their Spring production this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 at the Playmill, 262 Alexander Street. Entitled "Three For One," the show consists of three short plays: "A Merry Death" by Nicholas Everlenov; "Elders to the Sea," by John Millington Synge; and "The Man by the Lake" by Eugene O'neill. Sets are under the direction of Helen Van Sant.

The three plays were selected for public production by John F. Becker from among a series of staged readings presented during the year by members of the Players who participated in a Directors' Workshop which he conducted. Mr. Becker, a television and motion picture director in New York, has directed many of the Players' previous productions.

Mrs. Byron Keene is director of "A Merry Death." Members of the cast are James Hopkins, Fred Sheldon and Shuanith Oppenheim, all of Princeton; William Wick from the Princeton Theological Seminary, and Corrine Deppen of Rocky Hill. "A Merry Death" is notable for its departure from the conventions of settings and costumes, both of which are executed in black and white.

Director of "Elders to the Sea" is Miss Nanci Haughton. In the cast are Kit Barnard of Skillman, Nan Rickert, Franklin Park, and a composite of Princeton and Tom Barry, a student at Princeton University. A tragedy, this play is considered a classic among Synge's works.

Mrs. Paul Fussell is director of "The Man by the Lake." The cast are Herbert MacNeany and Jane Andrews of Princeton and Ruth Eisemann of Douglass College. First produced abroad in 1951, "The Man by the Lake" can now be seen in 1957 at the Phoenix Theatre in New York.

PCD TO GIVE PLAY

This Weekend. The Dramatic Club of Princeton Country Day School will present its annual play this Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30. The Thursday performance is an innovation this year, in response to requests for an additional performance.

The year's play is again an original one by the teacher-writer, Alan Ackley. Entitled "The Bottom," it is described as "the trials and tribulations of life in a Naval military academy." Mr. Ackley is also serving as director.

Members of the cast are John Odden, Alfred Davis, Richard Crawford, Walter Edwards, Charles Stuart, Tom Reynolds, Ward Judd, Ted Churchill, Joseph Smith, John Willis, Production assistants are Dudley Blodgett, Peter Wright, Alex Paton and Robbin Kerney. Walter Smith, William H. Jones and Willam Stanhope with handle lighting. In charge of publicity are Regan Kerney and Robbin French.

"OLANTHE" LEAD: Lee H. Palmer, who played the role of Chancellor in Princeton Savoyards' production April 24 and 25 and May 2 in McCarter Theatre.

'OLANTHE' TO OPEN

Next Week at McCarter. The Princeton Savoyards' production of "Olanthe" will open next Friday evening at 8:30 at McCarter Theatre. Other shows will be Saturday evening and on Sunday, May 2 (matinee and evening).

Costumes for the production have been designed by Princeton freshman Paul Glicker, whose work for the Theatre Intime's presentation of "The Revenger's Tragedy" last year received Munroesville awards. Michael Clegg is director and Melvin Olmonson of the Westminster Choir College will conduct.

Tickets for "Olanthe" are currently on sale at the Princeton University Store, 262 Alexander Street, or by mail from 83 Blair Hall, Princeton. Remaining tickets will be sold at the box office of McCarter before the performance.

THE ARE-IN-THE-ROUND

For April 24th. The Apparil Dancers will use a modern version of a theatre-in-the-round for their new "Ballet in Latin," to be presented Saturday evening, May 2, at Princeton Senior High School. The stage will be blocked out on one side of the high school gymnasium and the audience, as in the theatre of ancient times, will be seated higher than the dancers, not far from the action of stage. The dancers will appear out of the audience and from behind tall screens.

The stage will be lighted by spotlights, which will be shot from the far side of the hall, behind the audience. Lighting will be by David Patterson, Princeton High School senior, and Michael Clegg, Princeton junior, Richard Wood. Proceeds from the show will go to the Apparil School Scholarship Fund. The ballet will also be presented April 30 at the annual Latin Tea for Latin students and their parents.

TO STAGE 'LES JUSTES'

At Murray Theatre. Albert Camus' play, "Les Justes," will be presented this Friday at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in Murray Theatre, by the French

REQUIEM PERFORMED

In Princeton Symphony. For its first concert of the season, the Princeton Symphony Orchestra presented to a standing-room-only audience an exciting and tumultuous performance of the Requiem by Verdi. The concert was given Monday night in McCarter Theater.

The orchestra, under the direction of Nikolai Harsanyi, the Symphonic Choir of Westminster Choir College under Warren Martin, and four soloists accomplished the technical difficulties of the Requiem with unusual skill. It is an extremely difficult work to perform and it says a great deal for the performance level of the Symphony that Mr. Harsanyi felt he could attempt it.

Under Mr. Harsanyi's disciplined hand, the instruments responded with a precision and surge with splendid effect. The Dies Irae was lightning and brimstone, The Libera Me was as moving as Verdi must have wanted it to be.

Of the performers, the orchestra and choir were outstanding. The four soloists, Janice Harsanyi, soprano; Rafael J. Gómez, tenor; James Robert Simpson, tenor and Herbert Pace, bass, did not have the big operatic voices that the Requiem demands, but they gave a strong Verdi. They made the Harsanyi was particularly fine in the Domine Jesu with its long, sustained high notes.

Princeton is extremely fortunate in its symphony. Very few towns the size of this one could produce an orchestra and chorus capable of performing so difficult a work with such notable success.

CONCERT THIS FRIDAY

By Odette, Folk Singer. A concert of folk music from around the world will be presented this Friday evening at 8 in McCarter Theatre by Odette, singer known for her appearances at New York's Blue Angel. Dramatic Group of Princeton University. The play will be performed in French.

The French Dramatic Group is a new organization comprised of the joint members of the Theatre Intime and Le Club Francais. Serving as director is Andre Mankowski, who will play one of the three leading male parts. Other members of the cast are Mademoiselle Alice Bourgoin, Pierre Bonifay, Stephen Nickman, Madame Marie-Jacque Hoos, and Pierre Pierre.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Black Orchid (April 16-18) is the latest in the distinguished line of pictures in which someon tries to make an honest woman out of a sordid character. In this case the sordid is Anthony Quinn, and the film shares several obvious advantages with its predecessors. The story is simple, if forced, to be made honest she must begin by being reasonably dishonest, and these early scenes provide a good opportunity to see her in her best. Quinn's version of an untamed female.

Furthermore, the process of reformation can never be a wholly pleasant one for the reformee, especially when she has to do it pout intermittently. If you haven't yet had the experience of seeing Miss Loren pout, it's about time you did. She is a girl who has familiarized herself with this particular natural phenomenon.

At the opening of the plot, a term we shall use for want of a better description, we find Miss Loren pouting furiously. She is guilt-ridden because her desire for material wealth has driven her husband to a life of crime and she has been compelled to leave him. Her 12-year-old son has been committed to a reform school because of his inability to reconcile himself with the Western legal code.

At this juncture she is intro-

BUTTERFLY IN THE PARLOR
Everyone's coming to you now have a splendid collection of butterflies without even owning a net, much less going to the trouble of tramping the Brazilian jungle in search of some specimen or other.

Your collector is a Princeton resident named Arnold Jacobs who imports butterflies from various countries. He has them in a frame, mounting them against pieces of drapery fabric and framing them in little antique frames. You may see them at sessions on Witherspoon and George Habeck.
He also does bugs.

Mr. Jacobs buys his butterflies, but does not eat them. They come folded, and he gently unfolds them, ponders their varying and invariably brilliant colors and then decides how they should be framed.

In his boxes, he has butterflies
from Tibet and Madagascar, from South America and Africa, from Asia, even, how exotic can one be? — from West Germany.
Some are the iridescent electric blue ones you've seen often before, and most of the others are more unusual.

The owl is the owl butterfly, five inches long, with one dark side and one side like the face of an owl. There is another that looks like two leaves in late autumn, two another an inch and a half long with tremendous antennae longer than its body.

Or scenes made of brown velvet with bright green spots which are feathered at the edges. A dazzling black and green one looks like a masquerade mask.
A small one and this one might be a piece of lace. There are some so beautifully marked on both upper and under sides that Mr. Jacobs mounts them on a mirror. (Yes, there are orange and black models to choose from.)

More On The Line

The Clothes Line on Palmer Square has extended its stock to include a line of clothes for little boys up to size 6. In the past, the shop had had only garments for little boys and has left completely here the size range from toddler to six.

In the new collection, you'll find some very masculine shorts, tailored in colors of two browns and white, or two blues and white. There is a bibbed pair in light blue cord-too. Shirts are cotton jersey or mesh, with crew necks or little collars. There are solids,

(like the ship-shape navy), red and white striped and some pleasing geometric patterns.

After the weather becomes a bit, there will be swimming trunks from Cole of California.

Now about the bugs. There is one which Mr. Jacobs says is a banana-eating beetle, and it could well be; it's big enough to eat a watermelon, but it's not prepared to eat bananas, though for us, being beetles, it was a three-inch-long body and some awesome legs. It is roughly orange and black, although the orange is closer to red.

We liked best the colony of iridescent beetles, one of them a long, smooth, sleek oval about half an inch wide and two inches long. There are several smaller beetles that look like scarabs. A mounting of any of these would admit a flair to a man's den.

Mr. Jacobs, who may be reached in the evenings at WA
5-2924, still has his old friends at $3, $5, $7.50 and up to $25.
If you wish, he will use your own drapery fabric as a mat and your own frame.

Quartz for Cooking. "Radiant Queen" refers, not to the monarch of her kitchen, but to a new radiant cooker which is now available in the market. WA
5-2924, sent his old friends
$59.95 ($90 with rotisserie).

The Radiant Queen is a three-decker unit which you stand on a table, inside now or outdoors as you like. You have an outdoor plug arrangement. The bottom deck is a tray, the middle deck is an adjustable shelf on which you put steak, hamburger, hamburgers, fish, meat, vegetables.
The top deck holds the radiant quartz heat element that does the cooking.

You put the food on the rack and raise the rack to a hair's breadth of distance above the quartz element. If you want to, you can touch the food to the element and sear the steak for half a minute or so.

Cooking times are short: three to five minutes for steak, one minute per side for hamburger.
For frozen vegetables, you cook with the tray as far from the heating unit as possible, using only a pat of butter and no water.

The Radiant Queen is open all around, not closed in like a rotisserie. It uses a sheet of quartz to radiate heat over the food that is placed on the tray. This radiant heat is said to cook without burning and to tenderize as it cooks, making it particularly useful for the less expensive cuts of meat.

For charcoal flavor, you touch the meat to the quartz, thereby searing in the juices of the meat.

This process is also said to give a nice flavor to the meat.

As for maintenance, the Queen's quartz unit cleans itself.
The food tray comes clean with rinsing in hot water. There are no knobs or switches. You plug in, let the unit warm and then go ahead.

For Large Sizes. A special rack of skirts for large sizes has been added to the stock at the Princeton Shopping Center and for women who are difficult to fit, there is a wide selection in fabric and style.

Sizes, in waist inches, go from 32 to 40. There are straight skirts in solid shades, and some in bright prints that "say it all." "I'm a size 36, what size I swear!" One skirt is surrounded by box pleats, another is gathered at the waist. Corduroy has been used in some models but most of the skirts are wash-and-wear cottons.

In standard sizes, Bailey's has other skirts and summer clothes, mostly in wash-and-wear. For example, take a yellow (white or rust) blouse, to be worn inside or out. It has roll-up sleeves and a silk collar and it costs $7.50. A short-sleeved dress, dacron and cotton comes in subdued shades of sage green, pale blue and beige. An A-line in the print falls in at the waist. The skirt of this little number softens the skirt. The dress is a handsome spring staple, for $16.95.

Another spring staple might be the English raincoat, acid-washed, with slush pockets and a fly front. It goes up to size 44 for $22.95.

There is an interesting gathering of samples on the Bailey rack. Most of them have short jackets, all are wool. Tweeds, flannels, and moths are all represented.

A black and white two-piece has a short jacket that speaks for itself in brief words. A rust wool flannel is more relaxed and fluid with a soft shawl collar.

Bright red mohair makes a straight skirt and very short jacket lined with polished cotton in a pink and red carnation print.

The same jacket can be made to make a jewel-neckline blouse and skirt. This is our ensemble for you.

Another ensemble, this one for summer, consists of a white embroidered dress with a short, shallow, scooped neck. The same white fabric goes into a straight skirt with a little jacket, short or long, depending on your taste. Wear the jacket with skirt or sheer. You may buy the pieces separately; dress is $14.95, suit is $16.95.

In the lingerie department, Bailey has a new line of lace-trimmed jammies which come in baby doll pants and full-length ones.

Let the coolness of the evening decide which you wear.

A maternity top for warm days is made of white plique trimmed with runners of lace-head red print bands. The neckline is a simple rectangle, the sleeves are bare.

You are aware, of course, that Bailey's has a very large, very well-made uniform department. Know what you can buy there now? Maternity uniforms.

dicted to Quinn, a frighteningly spry young man with a grown daughter. As Quinn is trying to rehabilitate Miss Loren, he finds his rocky romance between his daughter and her fiance. For courage of pain, Miss Loren's son score is from the beginning when it becomes apparent that Quinn will not allow her to marry a gangster friend of her late spouse. Such an otherwise welcome provided a legally acceptable home for the boy and ended his confinement. In the climactic scene, Miss Loren faces Quinn's daughter and an emotional-packed effort to find a way out of everybody's problem. The film is in VistaVision.

PAIR AT PLAYHOUSE: Sophia Loren and Anthony Quinn are on Playhouse screen this weekend.

Thunder in the Sun. (April 19-21) is a nimble Western, the gimmick in this case being that the familiar westward pilgrimage is made by a group of fiercely independent Indians. The story is in Eastern color and stars Susan Hayward, Jeff Chandler and Jacques Bergerac, none of whom seems especially happy about being involved in the venture.

The story concerns the familiar tribulations of those who traveled West in the 1840's, spiced with a love interest between Miss Hayward and Bergerac and a hate interest between Miss Hayward and Chandler.

Another Western, this one for departure from convention occurs when the travelers battle some objectionable redskins with tactics learned in the Pyrenees.

The setting is a descriptively un-American and effective.

"Thunder in the Sun" was written by Guy Trosper and James Hill and produced by Clarence Brown for Seven Arts Productions. Russell Rouse directed.

THE GARDEN

The Crucible (April 17-18), originally billed as "The Witches of Salem," is a French adaptation of Arthur Miller's play, based on the screen by Jean-Paul Sartre. Intriguing as this combination may seem, nothing is lost outside of the language of old New England. It's a good drama, Sartre's vision being an improvement, and Director Raymond Rouleau and his cast add a high degree of emotional perception.

Mylene Demongeot plays the tony wench who is accused of being a "witch," while Yves Montand turns in a convincing role as the honest who gives in to the temptations of the "witches."

The setting is in Salem for all intents and purposes, with customs which are easily Puritan. As the title suggests, to the credit of the "witches" run through the closed community, the film reveals the social disintegration going on. The adaptation has given Miller's work a timeless value.

Three Coins in the Fountain. (April 21-25) continues the Garden's new policy of reviving a bit of other years for a Monday showing only. Clifton Webb, Dorothy McGuire, Jean Peters and Louis Jordan star in this romantic comedy.

The Skin of Our Teeth (April 21-25) is a tale of evolution and revolution as they affect chase Maria Schell, playing the pretty maid of the title. A well-known maid by Gerhart Hauptmann, the German novelist, it was first produced around the turn of the century. Although his outcry against a society that approves of taking and forgetting has lost some of its power in the intervening years, it is still a dramatic story written along lines of timeless appeal.

Maria Schell's pursuers include Dr. Valentine, a reclusive young fellow who with his heart, has little intention of being true, and Leopold Biberti, her employer who makes the traditional effort to defend her in the middle of a night. The plot becomes a bitter woman, but, with the help of another man (Hannes Messerer) faces the future with the hope of making a better life.

DR. EDMONDS RESIGNS

From Lawrence School Board. Dr. Russell S. Edmonds resigned from Lawrence Township's Board of Education Monday night during a lengthy session in which he protested the Board's decision to form a new committee to examine policy in regard to teacher credentials.

The Board's vote to form the new committee greatly cut off its decision to dismiss a teacher who has been the object of much recent controversy. Dr. Edmonds agreed with the Board in its 6-3 vote not to renew the contract of one teacher (she taught for only two years and so does not have tenure); however, he felt that the Board's new committee would duplicate and undermine the work of the education committee, which he heads.

The teacher involved was supported by almost 20 parents whose children attend her class. She has not been told specifically why her contract will not be renewed, but the Board has reportedly found her incompatible with principal and other teachers in her school.

There have also been unconfirmed rumors that the principal in the school involved is incompatible with the other teachers. Turnover and teacher dissatisfaction have reportedly been high and these factors have apparently

THREE ARE FINED

In Criminal Court, Alternatives. Three college students who were involved in an automobile accident on the Princeton University campus March 22 were fined $25 each by Magistrate Theodore T. Tammaro. Both fines were suspended for one year. Dorothy Irrgang, 19, and Karen Loedel, 19, Skidmore College students, and David Beall, 19, a Princeton sophomore, were convicted under State laws which prohibits minors from knowingly possessing alcoholic beverages in an auto. A similar charge against Alfred B. Miller, 19, a Princeton sophomore, was dismissed.

In special court session, Miss Reete McGowan, 33, 246 John Street, was given a six-month suspended sentence for disorderly conduct, while William McIntosh, 54, 31 Moran Avenue, was sentenced to the workhouse for 30 days on a similar charge.

Fined for traffic offenses were John T. Virdes, 35, 566 Kingston Road, $50 for careless driving and leaving the scene of an accident; Mrs. Littleton Hardgrave, 43, 13 Witherpoon Street, $15 for driving on the sidewalk; Henry Elchhorn, 20, 4 Spring Street, $50 for improper registration; Charles E. Johnson, 21, and P. L. Carter, 210 Mercer Street, $15 for improper parking.

LEAGUE SPONSORS MEETING

On Recreation Report. Five members of the Joint Barbers-Township Advisory Committee on Recreation will discuss their re-

Funds Due For 206 By-Pass

Federal funds for the long-discussed by-pass for Route 206 are expected to be allocated to the town by the State Department. Mayor Raymond F. Male reports this week (see page 17.) The cut-off would divert through traffic, now using the State Road and Bayard Avenue, west of the community to U.S. 1.

While Mayor Male and Township Mayor Fairman look upon the development with favor, Rocky Hill Mayor Grace A. Gurkis and the council in that borough have taken a strong stand against the route proposed for the highway. Under present plans, they declare, the new highway would take some 34 acres of Rocky Hill property, decreasing the municipality's tax base and by municipalities.

Mayor Gurkis attacks the proposed alignment for the bypass as "ruinous to her community" in that it would depreciate the value of the substantial Rocky Hill opportunity for growth. A public meeting was scheduled for Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Ryerson fire house, and plans were made to circulate petitions against the highway cutting through any part of the borough's land.

Recently completed report at an open meeting of the Princeton Women Voters. The meeting will be held Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Simeon Hunter and Ellis Willard, Borough members of the Committee, will be present. Mrs. John C. McLean, Mrs. Gurkis and George Speedy will represent the Township. Mrs. Edwin Gatchell will serve as chairman.

At the meeting material will be available explaining the background of the League's stand in support of the Joint Commission. Members of the panel will discuss existing local facilities, the needs of the community, criteria used in preparing the report and recommendations.

P.T.A. Panel at Valley Road. "Aspects of Discipline," a panel discussion will be held by the Parent-Education Committee of Valley Road P.T.A. will be held Tuesday from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the Valley Road library.

Jack Verner, of the psychology department of the Union University, and three participants will be John McKenna, principal of Valley Road and Frank Haronian, Township school psychologist.

I BEG YOUR PAROLE—AM I TRESPASSING? Dogs who are allowed to run loose present home-owners with a vexing problem this time of year. Shuffles, a Basset hound with manners, asks permission before scampering through the fence. The dog, who belongs to Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, State Road, expresses her opinion in greater detail below.

Question of the Week

Question: Do you consider dogs which are allowed to run loose a problem? If so, what should be done about it?

Where asked: Around town.

Mrs. Frederick M. Porter, 202 Birch Avenue, technical worker at RCA: I do think they are a problem, as allowed to run loose. They make themselves a nuisance and are destructive. I know dogs myself, but I think they should be fenced in.

Mrs. K. Dexter Miller, Province Line Road, housewife: I'm in favor of having them fenced in because canines are a menace. They do a lot of damage to the dogs I don't think civilization is set up to have dogs run loose any more. I have a whole kennel full and every time I walk the dog, I run into people who are afraid of them. They don't have a fenced in yard. As far as the damage the dogs do when they run loose, I'm sure that it's not serious. Most people would be willing to file a complaint. But they should object to the neighbors before going to the police.

Shuffles, State Road, Actually, I've been bopping up on this question for some time. No question about it: A newly-planted flower bed is the best safety-deposit for a bone. However, no well-bred dog would dream of digging in his flower master's flower bed and Disloyal now. Now, I know the most marvelous tulip-bed just up the road to the police.

Edward Stinson, 461 Ewing Street, retired chauffeur: Yes, I absolutely do. I don't think they should be allowed to run loose. Especially in the woods where they get overhanded and bite a child quite easily. I think anyone who loves to have dogs should think enough to keep them under control. The Township should take necessary steps to stop them from running loose.

Mrs. James Harford, 58 Dearthpath, housewife: We have had a problem, but I seem to like our neighbors better than their dog, so I don't mind a bit.

Dr. D. B. Craig, 537 Stockton Street, veterinarian: Not except where the dog is of known vicious nature. In cases where dogs bother neighbors in some ways it is a thing which should be taken care of. From the neighbor's point of view, a dog is better off tied up. But, on the other hand, from my experience, I don't think dogs are very happy tied up or confined.

What Does The Law Say?

An advertisement and a letter in Towne Topics and letters read at Monday night's Township Committee meeting have aroused interest as to what the Borough and Township ordinances say about the freedom of dogs in both municipalities, the canines are allowed to run loose, with the owner responsible for any damage done.

The police chiefs can order a dog confined which creates a nuisance (such as barking all night), after a written and signed complaint. Township chief Joseph Nini feels the present set-up is adequate to meet any dog problem "provided people come in and complain."

But, the problem is to get them to sign a complaint according to Mr. Nini. He said people call up and want something done, but "won't give their name, the name of the dog's owner, or what the dog has done."

Mrs. Leslie Barnes, 67 Dempsey Avenue, housewife: We fenced in our back yard, so we don't have a problem except in the front yard. I think unless there are a number of houses in the neighborhood, they should be allowed to run free. I think the present system is a fair way to do it. It seems too bad to confine all dogs.

John C. Williams, II, 120 Want Road, advertising executive: I don't think there is any dog problem. Frankly, what we should do is to keep dogs from going into swimming pools. I don't think there should be an ordinance, but people should curb them on their own.

Topics Of The Town

EXPANSION PLANNED

On Princeton Laboratory, one of the major expansion of its Central Research Laboratory by Princeton have been announced by the Food Machinery and Chemical Corp. The addition, a large wing, will be ready for occupancy in less than one year, to be used for the application research and technical sales service activities.

Based on the architectural plan of the present building, the wing will be constructed of red brick, aluminum and large expanses of glass. It is expected to cost $100,000 and will be principally visible from the Plainsboro Road.

Most of the new wing will be occupied by the Industrial Research and Development Department, under the direction of Hans O. Kauffmann of Princeton. The staff of FMCC Princeton's laboratory will be approximately immediately after the wing is completed and is expected to increase to 250 a year or two thereafter.

CONANT TO SPEAK

This Thursday Evening, Dr. James B. Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, will report on secondary school education in the United States at a meeting this Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in Princeton High School.

Dr. Conant has recently conducted a series of lectures entitled "Schools in 20 Years" during a study sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York. His address here is to be given in the joint assembly of the High School, I.T.A., and Educational Testing Service.

MASS. METHODS HIT

By President Gehren, Mass methods of teaching are condemned by President Robert F. Gehren of Princeton University in an article in the weekly's Post of The Saturday Evening Post. The article, written by Harold

H. Martin, is entitled "Bright Young Boss of Princeton."

Mr. Martin quotes Dr. Gehren as saying that he believes education by mass methods, in which students "listen to television screens, listen to recordings or sit tamely in huge lecture halls, passively receiving neatly packaged facts, can only result in mass mediocrities."

The value of a rounded education is also emphasized by Dr. Gehren in the article. "It would be our own peril," he is quoted as saying, "to let the ignorant masses of Soviet science and technology prescribe the curricula of our schools." He stresses the importance of the knowledge of the past, especially in making intelligent moral, social and political judgments.

RED CROSS HAS $35,500
Rehman $200 In-amps. With returns from several districts and from business and special gifts chairmen still to be ratified, the Red Cross has collected $35,500 in its 1959 annual fund drive. It was announced this week by Mrs. Jerald S. Hanks, general chairman.

Twenty-four workers in the drive and singled out Mrs. Thomas Boccanfuso for special mention. Mrs. Boccanfuso, a division chairman, completed the solicitation of the Princeton area and took over direction of the Great Road area when the regular division commander was unable to complete his work. In addition to Red Cross activities, Mrs. Mary Sage announced the organization's blood donor program had collected 109 pints of blood by Princeton Hospital patients during March. A group of nurses aides is completing training at the hospital under the supervision of Mrs. Mrs. Howard McMorris and Mrs. Elizabeth Hartman, who first aid courses were given to university students by Patrolman Frank McGuire of the Borough Police and Mrs. Harvey Fish of the Ambulance Corps. Dr. D. T. Calvin Moore and Mrs. John Stout II were in charge of a Gray Ladies course at the Neuro-Psychiatric Institute.

TALK ON RUSSIA SET
For Wyman Club Meeting. A talk on "Russia Today" will be the feature of the annual meeting of the Wyman Club to be held Tuesday evening at 8:15 in the Lounge of Firestone Library. Speaker will be Professor Warren W. Eason, Economics Department of Princeton University. Professor Eason will also show color slides taken during his visits to Russia last November and December. The meeting is open to the public.

TO HONOR STUDENTS
At Reception Sunday. The seven students in Princeton who are participating in the international scholarship program of the American Field Service will be guests of honor Sunday at 4 at a reception in Woodrow Wilson Hall, Princeton University. Special guest at the reception will be Stephan Galatti, executive director of AFS.

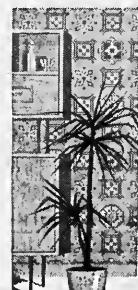

The seven students to be honored are Susan Craig, Abigail Pollak, Blake Smith and Deborah Smith of Princeton and the three foreign students now resident in Princeton—Andrea Lai of Japan, Françoise Malagnin of France and Guliz Sarmat of Turkey. The meeting is open to all those interested in learning about the AFS program.

COCKTAIL PARTY PLANNED
For Young Republicans. The Mercer County Young Republicans will hold their first annual spring cocktail party Saturday, April 6, at the Nassau Inn. The party is open to all Republicans and tickets may be obtained in advance from committee members or at the door.

Guests will include Dr. Charles R. Erdman, Jr., State Republican Chairman; Wesley L. Lance, president of the State Senate; Joseph L. Gandy, Mercer County Republican Chairman and state, county and local candidates. Mrs. Constance Gatling and Mrs. Germaine Mueller, both of Princeton, have the arrangements completed. Princeton members of the committee include Mrs. Harold B. Erdman, Mr. and Mrs. Hans R. Sander and Mrs. Georgia York.

MUSIC PROGRAM SET
By Princeton High PTA. The Music Department of Princeton High School has arranged a program entitled "Music in Rehearsal" at the annual meeting of the High School PTA, to be held Tuesday evening at 8 in the auditorium.

DR. SPITZER TO SPEAK

Dr. Lynman Spitzer Jr., director of Project Mattheim at Forrestal Research Center and chairman of Princeton University's Department of Astronomy, will lecture on the Sunspot cycle program at a meeting of the Women's College Club of Princeton in the high school social room at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Dr. Spitzer's work has drawn acclaim from fellow scientists for many years. As long ago as 1941, he told the annual conference of the American Astronomical Society that "it was only a question of time before scientists developed a kind of space satellite that could make repeated flights of prediction, while stationed hundreds of miles above the earth's surface and circling the world once every few hours."预定 for the meeting are Mrs. George Bowers and Mrs. Donald Rugg.

Report from THE MAYOR

Federal Aid For By-Pass. Information contained in a letter just received from State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer, "You will be interested to know," says the Commissioner, "that we have just had approval from the Federal Government for inclusion of such a route (the Princeton By-Pass from Route 206 to Hightstown) in the Federal Aid Program. This will, of course, make the advancement of this project more certain and should be a source of considerable satisfaction to those who have worked so energetically and, if I may add, effectively for this accomplishment for Princeton."

Concern About Alignment. Naturally, the consulting engineers recently engaged to pinpoint the by-pass alignment have not completed their studies. But already a number of Princetonians, Franklin Township and other affected areas have expressed concern.

At last week's Open House session the Mayor received a visitor who expressed concern over the State's plans on this. The Mayor relayed to the State Highway Commissioner the fact that some people had an apparent attempt to create some panic. A series of properties had stirred up unnecessary unrest and fear about the project.

The Mayor's Consult. Naturally, the Princeton community stands to benefit immensely from the by-pass and related highway planning. Over the past weekend, therefore the two Princeton Mayors met twice to discuss these matters.

Out of the discussions came plans to invite appropriate representatives from our neighboring municipalities, from those towns directly affected, and from the State Highway Department. Commissioner Palmer has agreed to cooperate and to supply well-drawn maps of the area under discussion.

Mayor Fairman has done a great deal of preliminary discussion with major landholders in the area. The Mercer County Engineering and Planning Department are very much interested in the traffic circulation problems in the community. The time seems ripe for major gains in a strong cooperative venture among the many public agencies interested in the short and long-run road patterns in and around Princeton.

Crowded Calendar. Along with the agenda preparation session of Council, a session with the planning board, and the regular weekly Open House, the Mayor's calendar also included: a planning session of the World Conference on Youth; the monthly traffic safety meeting (accompanied by Chief Mondone); the Library-sponsored reception for Princeton seniors (through the Public Library staff earned well-deserved praise); a brief talk, along with Mayor Fairman, at the awards presentation to 70 youngsters in the Junior Service program at the P.T.A.; a luncheon meeting and seminar at the Library Trustees' Institute (along with fellow-Truster Jean McDonough, Librarian Margaret Barr, and State Librarian Roger McDonough).

"Tell It To The Mayor." This Thursday and next the Mayor will again welcome citizens to the regular weekly Open House sessions at the Borough Hall from 7 to 10 p.m. No appointment is ever necessary for these informal meetings. If a question can be answered by telephone, just call WA 4-3118.

SPORTS In Princeton

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

All Tiger Teams in Action. The only weekend of the spring season when every Princeton team is in action at home will give sports fans a wide choice this Friday and Saturday. The program includes two Ivy League baseball games, one with Princeton up as part of doubleheader with lacrosse; golf, tennis, track and a three-race regatta on Lake Carnegie.

Brown will open the Ivy title chase for the Tiger nine Friday at 4, with Army on tap Saturday at 1. Navy will complete an attractive twin bill with University Field in a lacrosse game at 4:30.

Other action includes a track meet against Columbia in Palmer Stadium, golf and tennis against Brown, and Princeton freshman, junior varsity and varsity crew races against Navy. The first race is set for 4:45—see Calendar of the Week page 12, for the complete schedule of all weekend events.

CREW FACES TROUBLE

Tigers Experienced. Because its opponents this season almost uniformly are well equipped with veteran crews, Princeton's inexperience-filled crew may be forced for a rough season. The Tigers will defend the Navy Cup in their opening regatta this weekend, but the visiting midshipmen are favored to return the trophy to Annapolis.

Penn will enter an all-senior boat in the Childs Cup regatta on April 25, while Harvard, Yale and Cornell all enter the triple crown. Princeton appears to have greater ability than the Tigers can handle. A year ago, the Orange and Black defeated Navy on the Severn River but could not win again during the 1958 season.

BALL TEAM NEEDS HITS

Pitchers Under Pressure. Unless Princeton's baseball team can improve its pitchers better support the plate, there may be major improvement over last year's seventh-place finish in the Ivy League will go out the window. Winning more than their first five games, the Tigers could keep their best performances they could get from their hurlers to keep from dropping five straight. Bill Douglass, Bert Shill, Steve Halligan, Tim Setton Hall and C. W. N. by respective scores of 2-0 and 3-0. Belz limited the losers to two hits his mates earning a narrow edge in the slighest when they got three.

Weekend games against Rider College and Georgetown were rained off, while Eddie Donovon has no reason to complain about the weather to sort out the best infield material. The Bider contest was rescheduled for Tuesday—see page 4 for results.

Princeton's Princeton pitcher who has seen more than an inning of action except Joe Burns has shown good ability on the mound. Belz and Douglas the best hurlers. Both won their first at his best, following the late start basketball season, and took the loss at New Brunswick last week when Rutgers triumphed, 5-3.

ton's inexperienced lacrosse team could contain gave Johns Hopkins a 24-3 triumph last weekend over Princeton. The Princeton starters, picked to replace Army as national champions, broke away from a 4-1 lead at the end of the first period with a seven-goal onslaught to bring Princeton in the second round.

Earlier in the week, Mount Washington of Baltimore gave the Orange and Black a 2-2 draw. Eddie Donovon said that it will be much closer against Princeton this weekend; despite the one-sided scores last week, Ferris Thomens' Squad appears capable of giving all but the very top teams a close battle.

"CONTROLLED OPTIMISM"

As PHS Track Operator Nears, Coach Win Niles feels "controlled optimism" over the chances of Princeton High School track team in the upcoming season. The Little Tigers will come on against a tough New Brunswick squad on Wednesday.

Princeton High should be especially strong in the weight events where Ridge Applegate should turn in top performances, and the quarter-mile, where Bob Cooper will be outstanding, according to Coach Niles. "We should be fair in the sprints too," he added.

Johnie Cooper in the quarter will be Eric Jones, Jim Lovell and Marty McGuire. Track Captain Wynn Jennings and Tim Hinds will run both the sprints and the 220, while "the trio" of Larry Johnson, Jerry Cypress and Articular Parcival will run the high and low hurdles. Coach Niles reports. John High may be a "great headliner" in the half mile, followed by Tom Harvey and Steve Vlachos. Dick Larson and Nelson Vlachos will run the mile.

In the field events, Niles expects to use three, Niles expected, jump; and field events captain freshman Dick Bedford for the high jump; Hinds, Fischer and possibly Tom Clark for the broad and field events captain Roger Stroh, Jack Coddington, Charlie Jones and Dale Kilgore for the pole vault. Weight men, in addition to Applegate, will be George E. Eason, Copeland, Howard Gould, Jack Kebaboda, Dan Fuller and Dave McKeek.

Coach Niles has already been hit hard by ineligibility, which claimed two runners and his best high-jumper. "But it's no where near as bad as last year, when near six weeks later after the first meet," he commented.

The schedule: New Brunswick, April 22; Penn Relays, April 23; Princeton, April 25; Rutgers, April 26; Stevens, May 1; Highstetton, May 6; Highland Park, May 13; Hamilton, May 15; Somerville, May 18; Princeton Central, May 22; New Jersey Conference, May 27; Central Jersey meet, May 30; State meet, June 6.

NO SENIOR STARTERS

PHS Needs to Rebuild. Since the trip to Washington cuts out three days of practice next week for seniors, Coach Harry Zappi will open the season with only juniors and sophomores. The Princeton High football team squad will meet Trenton High here Friday in the first contest of the Little Tigers' 16-game slate. —Continued on Page 19

WE Congratulate

PETE MORGAN
Princeton Track Coach

Princeton's indoor track team finished last in the Heptagonal Meet at Ithaca in early March, scoring only a single point. Last week, the Tigers traveled to Virginia and swept three meets against some opponents by margins ranging from eight to 41 points.

Although not a achieved a distinction in the Ivy League's best, the victories were a major morale boost for Princeton track. The sport has made a huge improvement in its efforts to maintain strength equal to the Tigers' traditional opponents, and this past winter performances reached an all-time low.

Biggest problem is the lack of individual talent, although since Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Army, Navy and others in the east all have long had field houses, Princeton, in contrast, is just barely entering the planning stage.

The fact that track spreads over a six-month season, indoors and out, creates academic problems for a part of the team. Injuries add to their inevitable toll—sprinter Dick Edmunds, who set a varsity record the first time he competed a Princeton freshman, was lost to the team all winter.

Pete Morgan, now in his 14th year as a Princeton coach, has had the patience to ride out adversity. He has worked hard and long with the material at hand, and the fog and wet days philosophically have been grateful for early spring sunshine whenever it appears to further conditioning of his personnel.

Last week, Morgan's Orange and Black operatives opened their southern invasion with an unexpected victory over Virginia Military, 69½ to 61 2/3. Two weeks later they trounced the University of Richmond, 85 to 44, winding up the tour on Saturday with a 79-52 triumph over Virginia.

Included among the results were two victories by each team credited to Bob Manning and Bob Fisher in the field events: three successive wins for Pete Harwood in the 220 for Pete Kington in the two-mile run, the relay quartet and for Edmunds in the 440. Best news of all, possibly, was Edmunds' 49.6 quarter, not far off the record he set for the distance last spring.

A Notre Dame honors graduate who compiled one of the top scholastic coaching records at Trenton High School before coming to Princeton in 1946, Morgan fits perfectly into the pattern here as a coach who earns his team's devotion and respect while getting the most out of his material. The years ahead, as the track picture brightens at Princeton, a major share of the success will be traceable to his coaching contributions.

second-place Nassau Del. Top individual scores were posted by Rudy Lehert, 224, and Bill Sculicrast, in the "B" League, 220. Second-place Princeton Captain Co. No. 1, however, is pressing the Belle Mead squad. The Princetonians, four games behind last week, added four wins to put themselves in striking range of another victory. Off the mark, Kington (48) is third.

Belle Mead continued to pace the Tri-County Firemen's League, adding two victories for a total of seven. Second-place Princeton Captain Co. No. 1, however, is pressing the Belle Mead squad. The Princetonians, four games behind last week, added four wins to put themselves in striking range of another victory. Off the mark, Kington (48) is third.

Cleffie Electric posted three wins to tie Cranbury Inn at 7-1 all for the lead slot in the Women's Industrial loop. Five Jills (62) in third place last Zoll plans to use veteran southpaw Jack Lackey on the mound again this year, and will use his sandwich at short, and Jack Hawkins on third. Roger森, Sandwich and Hawkins are all pitchers as well as infielders.

In the outfield, it will probably be Dick Olsen in center and Bob Warshick in left. The rightfielder will be either Ricky Hurford or Archie Freeman, depending on whether Trenton starts a left or a righthanded pitcher.

ADDITIONAL TRYOUTS SET
For American Legion Team, A second set of tryouts for the American Legion Minor baseball team has been scheduled for the next two Sundays, April 19 and 26. The team is sponsored by Princeton Post No. 1, American Legion, and the Princeton Chapter, Patrolians' Benevolent Association.

Boys under 18 as of next September 1 and attending school here or in Princeton, New Jersey, or Princeton Township are eligible to play on the squad: John H. Houghton, chairman of the Post No. 76 baseball committee, will be in charge. Also on hand will be coaches Joseph N. Coffey, Edward C. Meyer and John F. Petrone.

Players signing with the team must agree to remain on the squad for the entire season.

Although there is no initial limit on the size of the roster, the squad must be reduced by June 3 when competition begins at Hightstown Post No. 148 at Peedie.

Plans will be made for a field day for children to be held later this Spring. There will also be a report on the new playground to be located by a special committee which has conferred with the N.J. Bell Telephone Co.

PLAN PTA FAIR

At West Windsor School. The PTA of West Windsor Township will hold a "Circus Day" fair Saturday, May 1, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the West Windsor School, Dutch Neck.

Activities will include games of skill, novelties, a costume contest, and a fashion show by members of the Trenton Clown Club. Mrs. Orie D. Tuck of Dutch Neck is general chairman.

ETS PLANS OPEN HOUSE

To Show New Buildings. The new Educational Testing Service buildings on Rosedale Road will be open to the public this evening from 6 to April 28 30. A fourth open house has been scheduled for May 6 at the ETS Shipping Center on Baker Basin Road in Lakewood, N.J.

A different group has been invited to each of three Open House visits. Those asked to see the buildings on the first evening, Tuesday, April 28, include staff members from the higher educational institutions in the area and their families.

For Wednesday evening, members of the Boards of Education, municipal officials, the teaching and administrative staffs of the schools, parents, teachers and representatives of the PTA's and the Y's are on the guest list. The final group invited to the open house includes neighbors living near the ETS buildings, business men, members of service clubs, business associates of ETS and friends of ETS staff members.

An open house reception is scheduled for 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., with a reception following the tour of the buildings. The May 6 open house at the shipping center will be from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

GONZALES, ANDERSON WIN

In Pro Tennis Here. Pancho Gonzales battled his way to a 14-12, 6-3 victory over Australia's Lew Hoad Tuesday night in Diplomat Club. Gonzales, world's No. 1 professional tennis champion, broke Hoad's serve with the score tied at 12th games a piece and 30-all.

A crowd of 1,800 watched as Mal Anderson easily overcame his countryman, Ashley Cooper, 6-3, 6-3. In the other singles match, Gonzales and Hoad then teamed to defeat the other pair, 6-3, in a one-set doubles exhibition.

TIERS BEATEN AGAIN

On Two-Hitter. Rider College launched a Princeton College rival yesterday. The new Lawrenceville diamond by trimming the Tigers, 4-3. The Orange and Black collected only two hits off Jack Madson, an impressive 6-4 pitcher, reportedly being sought by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The victors were away to a 4-0 lead, largely on the first-inning work of starter Barber Colverton, before Finch got untracked. It took a pair of errors to help push over three runs in the seventh, but when darkness halted the game an inning later, the Tigers were still one behind.

PCD WINS FIRST

Rally Wins. Witherspoon, Mac McMorris sliced a single to right with two outs above the fourth afternoon to end his own game as Princeton County Day edged Witherspoon, 2-1. Both McMorris and losing pitcher Keith Van Note pitched tightly, but the usually unpredictable game.

After Witherspoon had broken the scoreless tie with a run in the top of the sixth, Captain Charlie Scott opened the game of the seventh with a line single to center. He stole second and then third, taking the latter bag as Joe Coffey reached first on a dropped third strike. Coffey stole second and McMorris followed with his game-winning safety.

Telephone: WALNUT 1-6109

HOURS: HOUSES OPEN DAILY 10 A. M. TO 8 P. M.

DIRECTIONS: From Princeton Center go North on Nassau Street (Route 27) 2 miles. Turn left on Shady Brook Lane to Pine Road.

Pre-View of Grandeur

This is a message for the families in the Princeton locality who have been patiently searching for the right spot to build or buy a home.

We feel that we have a location that very well suits your needs.

Here are the details: The locale, a former Princeton estate, commands a magnificent view of Lake Carnegie. Here we have assembled just 15 beautifully wooded sites for homes.

We can build your home here from our own custom Colonial, Cape Cod or Split-level designs or we will build from your personal specifications. Grounds are 1/2 acre or more. Utilities will include city sewer. Prices from $35,000.

The tract is at the corner of Nassau St. (Rte. 27) and North Riverside Drive, Princeton. We cordially invite you to pre-view it—and discover a setting for a wonderful living potential for your family.

A VICTORIAN CHARMER
for $39,500

Are you tired of split levels? New houses without character and personality? Do you crave a spacious living room and master bedroom? Want grounds, large enough for comfort but small enough for easy care, near town but rustic and private? Are you allergic to dining areas and bedrooms all on one floor? Do you want space but not too many rooms to furnish? A delightfully landscaped "sitting-out spot" by the house? If the answer to all or most of these questions is "yes," the delightful 3 (possibly 4) bedroom, 2½ bath turn-of-the-century house is the answer for you. If you want to try it first—and be convinced of its livability—you can rent it furnished as of May 1st. In any case, come see and be conquered by its charm.
